

Bio for Guenter Klose, MLD/CDT Certified Instructor, CLT-LANA

Guenter Klose received his initial Manual Lymph Drainage (MLD) and Complete Decongestive Therapy (CDT) training at the Foeldi Clinic in Hinterzarten, Germany in 1984. Specializing in the treatment for lymphedema, in 1987, he became certified as an instructor for MLD/CDT by the German Massage and Physical Therapy Association.

In 1990, Guenter came to the United States to assist Dr. Robert Lerner in establishing the first CDT treatment center for lymphedema patients located in New York City. In 1998, Guenter established his own MLD/CDT training and consulting company, an organization that is dedicated to providing the highest quality lymphedema therapy training available. He has recently relocated his business to Boulder, Colorado.
